Today in Tucson Federal Court, Dr. Scott Warren's lawyers will argue in a pre-trial hearing that all charges stemming from his January 2017 arrest should be immediately dropped due to the selective nature of Border Patrol's enforcement activities and that the arrest was a targeted act of political retaliation resulting from No More Deaths' open criticism of Border Patrol's human rights abuses. Read more here.

In response to the growing evidence that we have clearly been targeted by the US Border Patrol, we are asking supporters to call the U.S. Attorney's Office and demand they drop all charges against Dr. Warren.
